Richland Soil and Water Conservation District Sponsors Bus Trip to Farm Science Review

Mansfield, Ohio - The Farm Science Review located at The Molly Caren Agricultural Center (MCAC) near London and hosted by the Ohio State University College of Food, Agricultural and Environmental Sciences is September 21 to 23. OSU states the Review will have more than 100 educational sessions, 600 exhibits; the most comprehensive field crop demonstration in the United States; a career exploration fair; and immersive virtual reality videos of agricultural activities. In addition to agriculture, learn about a variety of conservation topics at the Gwynne Conservation Area. There is something for everyone at Farm Science Review and you'll leave with information and resources to try on the farm or at home.

Join Richland Soil and Water Conservation District in partnership with OSU Extension Richland County on a chartered bus to Farm Science Review on Wednesday, September 22 and leave the driving to someone else!

- 7:00 a.m. Bus departs the Longview Center, 1495 W. Longview Avenue, Mansfield
- 5:00 p.m. Bus departs Farm Science Review for the Longview Center
- Cost: $20 per person includes bus and ticket for Farm Science Review
